

BEAUMARIS PORT HEALTH AUTHORITYReport of Medical Officer of Health.

I beg to submit the following report for the year 1943 (modified requirements set out in Memo.204/SA as indicated by Circular 1937 - 11th January, 1940).

- Table A. (i) No ships reported defective.
One ship reported with infectious disease onboard.
Two cases were admitted to the Isolation Hospital with Scarlet Fever.
- (ii) Omit.
- (iii) No change as regards source of water supply.
- (iv) All Port Sanitary Regulations carried out as usual, minor surgical cases treated, and also Vaccination and Inoculation were carried out. A few were treated for Influenza and chest trouble. V.D. continual cases given treatment. Acute Abdomen brought ashore and taken to Hospital.

Table B. Omit.

Table C. Scarlet Fever - 2 cases - one vessel.

Table D. None.

Table E.& F. Reason to believe Menai Bridge clear of rats - Traps laid - none caught.

Table G. No action was necessary.

Table H. Not applicable.

Table J. Action necessary to two ships:-
(i) Cockroaches - Ship infested in foreign ports. Disinfestation operations carried out by spraying and fumigating operations.
(ii) Disinfection of Sick Bay after Scarlet Fever cases had been removed.

VIII (i) None for inspection.

- (ii) All shell-fish beds and layings are now under constant supervision. Only one bed is used for collection of Mussels for bait only. Action taken to prevent Mussels from infected beds to be sent to Birmingham. Position now satisfactory. Action taken under Shell-fish Regulations, 1934. - Birmingham (Aber) Shell-fish Order, 1943. - came into force 15th November, 1943.

G. J. Jones

M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., D.P.H.

Port Health Medical Officer.

